2	06/03/2022	PEP meeting: The gathering was held in Oslo, with visiting member organizations from all over the country. This was an arena where the members got to influence what the Welfare Alliance EAPN Norway will work with and for in the time to come.	30	We received an introduction from organizational deputy Ann-Kirsti in relationship building and organizational development. We reviewed the results of a survey we have conducted among our member organizations. This resulted in a brief description of our identity based on the answers. Here is the summary: If you help a woman, you help her whole family. That is why we raise the family perspective both locally, nationally and internationally. We develop international cooperation	Honoratte Muhanzi

				networks and we build meeting places. We support legal, social and economic conditions for single parents and their children. We meet societal challenges in multicultural Norway by building trust and security. We establish and carry out social rehabilitation with social inclusion as a goal. We support and help people who for various reasons fall outside society. We fight poverty and social exclusion. We work for integration so that immigrants get involved and use their skills, and that people in cities and towns should experience respect, justice and care. We give people the opportunity for recovery, life mastery and user / relative participation. We are a bridge builder for experience and knowledge in growth. We worked out 2 resolutions. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Opportunity for participation2. Comprehensive income security - remove social assistance as a long-term benefit.
